

COMPETITION

Something for the Kitchen

Exhibit your work at a Timber & Working with Wood Show and you could win $1000!

Name: _____

Contact Number: _____ Mobile: _____

Email: _____

Address: _____

Postcode: _____

Description of Entry: _____

Exhibiting at the Timber & Working With Wood Show in:

- Brisbane Sydney Adelaide
 Canberra Melbourne Hobart

Entry forms must be received no later than the Monday preceding the nominated Show.
The item must be on site no later than 3pm Thursday, just prior to the Show.

Competition Rules:

1. Entries must be made wholly or mostly from wood and must be Something for the Kitchen — platters, bowls, breadboards, cutting blocks, knife holders, appliance stands — to a maximum size of kitchen stools or trolleys.
2. When delivered to the Show site, all entries must be accompanied by a description of the item, the method of construction (if applicable) and the woods used (if known). Maximum 150 words.
3. It will be the responsibility of the entrant to arrange delivery to and pick-up from the Show site.
4. The Competition is open to all woodworkers resident in Australia.
5. The judging panel will be led by woodworking educator and The Australian Woodworker Associate Editor, Les Miller.
6. The decision of the judges is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
7. While it is the intention to exhibit all entries at the Show, Skills Publishing and dmg world media reserve the right to exclude entries from exhibition.

Each Show:

1st Prize — $1000 2nd Prize — $250 3rd Prize — $250

The Something for the Kitchen Competition is conducted by Skills Publishing Pty Ltd, publishers of The Australian Woodworker, House & HOME and The Australasian Toy-Maker magazines, in co-operation with dmg world media, organisers of the Timber & Working with Wood Shows in Australia and New Zealand.

Post or fax entry forms to:

Something for the Kitchen Competition
Skills Publishing
PO Box 514
Hazelbrook NSW 2779
Ph: 02 4759 2844, Fax: 02 4759 3721

dmg contact:

Lucy Dean
02 8923 8306
Mob: 0409 353 044